

Health IT Leadership Roundtable
March 11, 2021

AGENDA

Time	Agenda
9:00 a.m.	Welcome & Housekeeping
9:05 a.m.	Opening Remarks Justine Handelman, Senior Vice President, Office of Policy and Representation, Blue Cross Blue Shield Association
9:30 a.m.	Congressional Keynote Senator Cassidy (R-LA), Member of the Senate Finance Committee and Senate HELP Committee, U.S. Senate
9:40 a.m.	Video Intro to Biden Administration Health IT Priorities
9:45 a.m.	The Power of Technology to Transform Patient Care Micky Tripathi, National Coordinator for Health IT, Office of the National Coordinator, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services
10:15 a.m.	Panel #1: Data, Infrastructure, and Fostering Emerging Technology The goal of this panel is to explore recent advances, as well as ongoing challenges, in health care data sharing and technology, using the COVID-10 vaccine administration effort as an example of our system's current opportunities and limitations. Panelists will discuss the ongoing work around data standardization and data quality; advances and challenges in interoperability, data exchange, and information blocking; and the role of public/private partnerships in emerging technology platforms to enhance innovation. The panel will also discuss new opportunities and issues that have come to the forefront, including the importance of incorporating social determinants and public health data and systems to better improve health and to understand and address health disparities. Moderator: Sophia Tripoli, Director, Health Care Innovation, Families USA Panelists: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Dr. Jim Jirjis, Chief Information Officer, HCA Healthcare• Linda Hyde, Coding Terminologist, EMI Advisors/Gravity Project; member of the American Health Information Management Association (AHIMA) Advocacy Practice Council

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • James Daniel, Lead, State and Local Public Health, Amazon Web Services; former Director of Public Health Innovation, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office of the Chief Technology Officer • Joe Bastante, Chief Technology Officer, BCBS-NC
10:50 a.m.	Panel #2: Patient Access and Trust This goal is this panel is to reflect on the comments made during the earlier panel from the patient perspective. This panel will highlight the importance of and challenges inherent in patient access to health information, as well as commentary on recent privacy reform efforts, including ensuring strong privacy and security protections for HIPAA and non-HIPAA covered data, maintaining patient trust, the value of virtual care and use of digital health tools, and the rules of the road for linking health data with public health and social determinants data. Moderator: Lina Walker, Vice President, Health Security, AARP Panelist: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Dr. Darilyn V. Moyer, Executive Vice President and Chief Executive Officer, American College of Physicians • Dr. S. Mark McNeill, Trillium Family Medicine, Asheville, North Carolina • Leigh Ann Eagle, Director, Health and Wellness Program, Maintaining Active Citizens, Inc., an Area Agency on Aging • Laurent Rotival, SVP Strategic Technology Solutions; Chief Information Officer; Cambia Health Solutions
11:15 a.m.	Congressional Keynote Representative Peters (D-CA), Member of the House Energy & Commerce Committee and House Budget Committee, U.S. House of Representatives
11:30 a.m.	Closing Keynote Sinsi Hernández-Cancio, Vice President for Health Justice, National Partnership for Women & Families
12:00 p.m.	Adjourn